

MESSAGE

On behalf of the Indian Army, I extend sincere felicitations to 'The Chanakya Aerospace, Defence & Maritime Review' on its 55th Anniversary.

The Magazine has indeed evolved into an intellectual medium for strategic thinkers, defence experts and military practitioners to share their perspectives on defence and security matters. The USP of the Magazine can be fathomed through the relevant and up to date information, wide array of issues and topics addressed and the incisive analysis presented, in an objective manner. These metrics have contributed towards making the Publication, a valuable source of information on defence and security issues.

I commend the entire Editorial Team of 'The Chanakya Aerospace, Defence & Maritime Review' for maintaining a high standard of excellence. I wish the Publication continued success and growth

'Jai Hind'

(Upendra Dwivedi)
General
Chief of the Army Staff